Gingerbread Restores N.U. Offensive Health

Lincoln-Sometimes a little bit of gingerbread can go a long way.

Nebraska's offense awoke from a fitful slumber on a double-handoff pass midway through the second quarter against California Saturday, and the Cornhuskers suddenly commembered how to run up big remembered how to run up big numbers in a 36-26 home-opening victory.

The great awakening went from quarterback Tom Sorley to I-back I. M. Hipp and back to Iowa State rallied to beat Rice, Page 2.

Sorley, who heaved a 57-yard pass to reserve wingback Maurice McCloney. The play set up the Huskers' first touchdown in 5½ quarters, going back through the Alabama game a week earlier. It was what Head Coach Tom Osborne calls a "gingerbread" play, the kind he hesitates to call until the Huskers have established their Huskers have established their

About all the Huskers had es-tablished to that point was a 7-0 deficit and an inclination to break down at the most inoppor-

Cal Wilts

When it was over, however, the Huskers had: —Cranked out 492 yards to the Golden Bears' 347.

—Survived five turnovers and three California missed field goal attempts that would have made a late surge much more

Scored four of their five -scored rour of their five touchdowns in the last 15:49 as the Bear defense wilted under the oppressive heat and Husker pounding. The official tempera-ture at game time was 86, and the Astroturf surface is always much hotter.

—Survived a 271-yard passing blitz by Cal sophomore Rich Campbell by playing loose and easy in the secondary and rushies. ing with a shuttle service interi-

-Uncovered a new hero in second-year freshman McCloney, who set up the first touchdown and provided the Huskers' first lead at 21-14 with

Husker Explosion

California 7 0 7 12-24 Nebraska 7 7 7 22-34 Cal-Eddings 12 pass from Campbell (Cooper kick) 7 pass (Todd kick)

Neb 22 58-302 190 492 41 20-10-2 5-39 4-3 a 32-yard reception in the fourth quarter, much to Osborne's sur-

-Erased the embarrassment of an untimely timeout that prevented a field goal attempt in the final seconds of the first —Paraded prize running back I. M. Hipp for 154 yards on 23 carries as he broke out of a three-game slump.

Tense Contest

It was three quarters of squeamish tension for the bulk of a Memorial Stadium turnout of 75,980. Nebraska came back to tie at 7-7 at the half and 14-14 in the last minute of the third

A three-touchdown assault in 14-vard sprint around the right Then the Huskers sat back and

Please Turn to Page 6, Col. I

Boston (AP) — "It's their playpen, but we've got the breaks," said New York Manager Bob Lemon after his Yankees whipped Boston 7-0 to close within one game of the AL East

"We just got a break and got lucky," said Lemon, referring to Lou Piniella's bloop double to short right field that keyed a seven-run rally with two out in the fourth imning Saturday.

"It was a little soft liner that fell in for Piniella," said Lemon. "It made the difference because two were out. The wind was blooking stone on Piniel.

was blowing strong on Piniel-la's hit and it fell to the safe part of the field. Just another lucky break."

"The wind was blowing a Roston Manager

gale," said Boston Manager Don Zimmer. "When a ball is up in the air like that, you figure Yanks Get Breaks in Boston 'Playpen' somebody is going to catch it. But it wasn't caught." Guidry Wins 21st Left-hander Ron Guidry was given all the cushion needed in the big fourth and breezed to his 21st victory, a two-hitter, for his seventh shutout. Guidry has lost only twice this year.

"He ain't 21-2 off a mistake,"

Zimmer said. "They had a tough pitcher."

Guidry walked four, struck out five in pitching his 13th complete game of the year. That carried the 'Yankees to their 15th triumph in 17 starts and sent Boston - losers of three straight to New York - to their eighth loss in 10 decisions.

The Yankees exploded against Dennis Eckersley, 16-7, sending 12 batters to the plate sending 12 Datters to before reliever Tom Burgmeier

tough pitcher.

behind the line of scrimmage, dropping Cal quarterback Rich Campbell for a 10-yard loss in the third quarter...At right, freshman Maurice McCloney is a new star on the offensive horizon. He is shown raising the ball in triumph as he crosses the goal line with a 32-yard touchdown pass.

Borg Is Ready For Challenge

New York (AP) — Wimble-don champion Bjorn Borg will play runner-up Jimmy Connors and defending champion Chris Evert faces 16-year-old Pam Shriver today in the finals of the U.S. Open tennis' champion-ships.

ships.

Borg, the patient, versatile Swede, downed Vitas Gerulaitis
6-3, 6-2, 7-6 Saturday. Connors came from behind in the third set to down 19-year-old John McEnroe in the other semifinal
6-2, 6-2, 7-5

First Since Jacobs

Miss Evert, who will be trying to win her fourth consecutive U.S. Open crown, downed Wendy Turnbull easily, 6-3, 6-0, in a semifinal that was resumed Saturday morning after heavy rains Friday.

Miss Shriver defeated top-seed Martina Navratilova Friday, 7-6, 7-6, to become the youngest finalist ever in the American championships.

If Miss Evert beats her, she would be the first woman to attain four in a row since 1935 when Hele Loople was her.

when Helen Jacobs won her

Borg was ready for another owdown. "I think Jimmy is very happy "I think Jimmy is very nappy I won. I know he wants to beat me very badly," he said. Borg has beaten Comors in five of their last six meetings, includ-ing the last two Wimbledon

If he does it again this time, he will have won three of the year's Grand Slam events — he won the French Open and tournament in Miami. Connors, meanwhile, has not a Grand Slam title since , when he won the U.S.

Open.
"Everyone is a challenge," Borg said Saturday, "but when I play Jimmy, it's something special. We always have good matches. I enjoy playing against him."

against him."

Borg didn't get as tough a match from Gerulaitis as both had predicted he would. They had been practicing together at Gerulaitis' home nearby, and both had said they were about even in practice matches.

Gerulaitis held service only in the first and seventh games of the opening set. He broke for 2-4, but was not steady enough to

4. but was not steady enough to 4, but was not steady enough to ward off a final-game break.

Borg built a 4-1 lead in the next set. Gerulaitis held for 2-4, but got only three more points as Borg ran out the set.

Gerulaitis began to combine accuracy with his quickness in the next game, though, and

Please Turn to Page 10, Col. 1.

Tunney Is OK After Operation

Los Angeles (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney is in satifactory condition in a hospital in Greenwich, Conn., following a "minor operation," according to his son, John Tunney.

The younger Tunney said his father, 81, underwent routine surgery in the lest few days and Wimbledon titles earlier — and would need only the Australian title at the end of the year to complete the sweep.

49 Straight Wins

Boro has won his last 49 world after scoring two victories over Jack Dempsey in the complete the sweep.

49 Straight Wins

Borg has won his last 49 matches. His last loss was in March, when he bowed to Tom 18 reported in no danger.

Tunney retired as undefeated heavyweight champion of the world after scoring two victories over Jack Dempsey in the 1920s.

Red Sox by 14 games on July 19, are 38-14 in a stretch bid to retain the East Divison title, the

Spectacular Catch Eckersley started the fourth by surrendering a pop single to Thurman Munson. Then Carl Yastrzemski made a spectacular catch in the left field corner or mb Reggie Jackson of a hit to rob Reggie Jackson of a hit and Munson was doubled off first.

Chris Chambliss doubled and Graig Nettles was walked inten-

Piniella then popped a fly to shallow right center. Five Boston players converged as the wind-blown ball fell safely, wind-blown ball fell safely, Chambliss scoring and Nettles

another intentional

taking third.

	Alabama(1-0) did not play.	Missouri
	Arkansas(0-0)did notplay	Vanderbilt
	Penn State (2-0) beat Rutgers, 26-3	Ohio State
	Oklahoma (1-0) beat Stanford, 35-29	WestVirginia
	Notre Dame (0-1) lost to Missouri, 3-0	idie
•	Michigan (0-0) did not play	Illinois
٠.	Michigan (0-0) did not play	Dann State
•	Ohlo State (0-0) did not play.	Dica
-	Texas(0-0)didnotplay	nice
	Southern Cal (1-0) beat Texas Tech, 17-9	Uregon
	Nebraska(1-1)beatCalifornia, 36-26	Hawaii
	Washington (0-1) lost to UCLA, 10-7	Kansas
	UCLA(1-0)beatWashington, 10-7	Tennessee
	Louisiana State (0-0) did not play.	Indiana
	Pittsburgh (0-0) did not play.	Tulane
•	Kentucky(0-0) did not play.	S. Carolina
٠	Texas A&M (1-0) beat Kansas, 37-10	Idle
•	Florida State (1-0) beat Syracuse, 28-0	Okla State
•	Clemson (0-0) did not play	The Citadel
٠	Clemson (0-0) did not play	Mondand
	North Carolina (1-0) beat East Carolina, 29-13	Con Diago Ct
	lowaState(1-0) beat Rice, 23-19	Saitulego St.

Defense Sparkles In UNO Victory

By Jerry Fricke

Greeley, Colo. — After playing major college football for three years, one at UCLA and two at Colorado, quarterback Jeff Knapple made his Division II debut for Northern Colorado Saturday. It wasn't a pleasant experience

Saturday, it wasn't a pleasant experience.
At the same time, University of Nebraska at Omaha junior Mike Mancuso was having his finest day as a collegian as he directed the Mays to two ourtected the Mays to two touchdowns late in the second quarter that were more than enough in a 14-0 victory. When Head Coach Sandy Buda came to UNO last Decem-ber he said Mancuso was a Divi-tion Leursterback. On this day sion I quarterback. On this da Mancuso made Buda look 100 percent correct in his assessment.

'Wanted the End Zone'

The lanky 6-3, 185-pounder from Omaha South connected on 17 of 25 passes for 179 yards despite a hard rush by the Bears that had him scrambling often. In fact, it was on a broken walk, Bucky Dent singled home two runs and Mickey Rivers sin-gled for two more. That was fol-lowed by a walk, a wild pitch, Munson's RBI single and a passed ball that brought home Randolph.

NEW YORK

Bivers of 4 10 2

Bivers of 4 10 2

Bivers of 4 10 2

Burless 3 30 1 0

Burless 3 40 0 0

Bu

Lynn 2. GScoff.

New York
Guidry W,21-2 9 2 8 0 4 S
Rector

Boston
Eckersty L.16-7 3 23 7 7 6 3 4
Borgmeier
HBP-Monson (By Eckersley),
Johnstone (By Borgmeier), WP-Eckersley, PB-Pisk, T-2 26, A-33,611.

NEW YORK

pass play under a heavy rush that Mancuso broke away for a 17-yard scoring run with only 45 seconds left in the half. "I seconds left in the natt. I wanted to get to the end zone in the worst way," said Mike, who isn't noted for his open-field maneuvers. Mancuso was hit at the two by a couple of tacklers and managed to lunge just inside the boundary marker at inside the boundary marker at the goal line.

"It was a dropback pass," Mancuso said "and our receivers (Kurt R. Anderson and Harold Young) had run patterns to the right. I saw the left side open up and just decided to take off." Mark Schlecht, who also had a fine punting day

Please Turn to Page 13, Col. 1.

Sports on TV

Sunday

Noon, NFL. Cincinnati at 3p.m., NFL, Oakland at San Channel 6 Noon, NFL, Dallas at New onk. 3p.m., U.S. Open Tennis.

Channel 10 10:30 p.m., "Tom Osborne: Channels 12, 26 4 p.m., Pro soccer, Schalke vs. Byern Munich, taped.

Monday Channel 7 8 p.m., NFL, Denver at Minnesota. 11:15 p.m., "Maverick Football." Tuesday Channels 12, 26 7 p.m., "Cornhusker Football."

Thursday Channel 7 10:30 p.m., "Bob Devaney

Channel 26
7:30 p.m., "Maverick Football."

How AP's Top 20 Fared Opponent Next Week Powers: Upset Ranks With Win Over N.U.

South Bend, Ind. (AP) — Notre Dame Coach Dan Devine said "it was just as hot on both sides of the field" Saturday when Missouri's Tigers threw a 30 upset at his defending national champions.

The victory came on sopho-more Jeff Brockhaus' 33-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter.

But the Tigers might have had an edge playing in the 95-degree heat.

"We've had 95-degree heat for a long time, and we've been working in it," said Warren Powers, who was making his creeching debut at Missouri coaching debut at Missouri.

Ranks With N.U. Upset

"This is just great, it has to rank right up with our Washington State victory over Nebraska last year," said Powers, in reference to his 19-10 upset of Neerence to his 19-10 upset of Nebraska in his single season at Washington State.

"Our players worked hard and were in good condition," said Powers. "I was convinced all along we could win this game and the players believed they could do it."

The last time the Tigers vis-

The last time the Tigers visited Notre Dame, in 1972, Missouri upset an unbeaten Irish

Notre Dame blew numerous scoring chances Saturday and Devine admitted after the game, "if I had to do it over, I would have gone for the field goal more often." "I'm critical of myself for not realizing field goals win games," said Devine. "The idea games," said Devine. "The idea is to win and we were in range

Missouri attempted a field goal in the first half and failed from 53 yards, but that didn't stop Powers from trying again field goal attempt when holder Joe Restic fumbled the snap from center after Notre Dame had reached the Missouri 14-yard line. Earl Gant ripped off a 21-yard gain and then took a 16-yard pass from Phil Bradley to move pass from Phil Bradley to move into Notre Dame territory. Bradley connected on a 15-yard pass to David Newman, down to the Irish 25 and, four plays later, Brockhaus booted his game-winning field goal.

Notre Dame's final scorin chance was lost with 3:31 re scoring maining when Vagas Ferguson fumbled on the Missouri 24-yard line and Eric Berg recovered for the Tigers.

Irish Miss Chances

The Irish had their chances. Early in the second half, they moved to the Missouri II-yard line where quarterback Joe line where quarterback Joe Montana failed to gain on a

Moments later Gerry Ellis fumbled on the Missouri 7-yard

Notre Dame got down to the 1yard line where Montana failed to get it across. On fourth down the Tigers' Chris Garlich and Kurt Petersen threw Ferguson for a loss.

Once again the Irish got good field position on a punt and Montana hit Kris Haines with a 35-yard pass to the Missouri 3-yard line. A penalty put it back on the 18 where a fumbled snap on the field goal attempt of on the field goal attempt occurred.

Montana Fumbles

Turnovers by Montana re-peatedly stifled Notre Dame's chances of getting on the board in the first half. Missouri had the game's first scoring chance The Tigers moved to the Irish 36-yard line where Brockhaus attempted a 53-yard field goal which fell short. Notre Dame roared back and with Montana passing to Pete Holohan for 18 yards and Fergu-down on the Missouri 18. Mon-tana fumbled the next snap and

The Irish got it right back when Gant fumbled and Jijn Browner recovered. But the Irish were unable to move the ball.

Midway in the second quarter, Notre Dame started another march and advanced to tile Missouri 32 after Jerome Heavens had ripped off a 16-yafd run. But Montana's next pass was intercepted by Eric Wright, who returned 33 yards to the Irish 47.

Lott Is 'Relieved' After Sooner Win

Stanford, Cailf. (AP)—The Oklahoma Sooners had never before seen a passer quite like Stanford's Steve Dils.

"I felt that Stanford would throw about 50 passes, but I didn't expect them to complete is to win and we were in range didn't expect them to complete several times, including the 32." Coach Barry Switzer said 32," Coach Barry Switzer said after his fourth-ranked Sooners survived Dils' passing perfor-mance and beat the Cardinals 35-29 Saturday. "I feel a lot more relieved now stop Powers from trymg again when the chance presented itself in the fourth quarter.

Fumble Costly
Missouri's winning drive began after the Irish failed on a lattement when belden passing but suffered four interceptions, with the final one by Darrol Ray coming in the end zone on the game's last play.

The interception followed a late Stanford rally. The Cardinals pulled within a 28-20 deficit by recovering two Sooner fum-

The Sonners tallied their last chdown on a I-yard run by Lott.

Oklahoma gave Stanford two points on an intentional safety in the final minutes, after another intereception on the Sooner 3, making the score 35-

Dils hit Ken Margerum for an 11-yard scoring strike and the Cardinals recovered the onside

But, with only eight seconds left, Ray intercepted Dils' final pass of the game "We felt if we threw a single Stanford, Calif. (AP) - The interception, we wouldn't win. we threw four, but those are the risks we had to take," said Car-dinals' Coach Bill Walsh. Dils' 32 completions were the most ever against an Oklahoma team. Lott, who totaled only 36 pass attempts last season threw 12 times.

Dils, a senior making his first start, was working with a young offensive line and receivers.

"They were super," he said.
"I expect to move the ball against anybody if we run things the way we're supposed to. But when you make as many mistakes as we made, you

The Sooners fumbled eight times and lost four.

Atlaheme 14 14 8 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 7—25 1 14 19 1 14 1 ick)
Stom—FG Nober 49
Öklo—Loft I run (von Schamann kick)
Öklo—Scfery von Schamann downed oll in end zone
Stom—Margerum 11 pass from Dits Nober kick)
A—66,000

RECEIVING—Oktohoma, Kimboll 4 Rhodes 1-70. Stanford, Francis 9-53, Ison 7-58, Margerom 6-74.